UK Deaf Athletics – Cookie Policy (Essential Cookies Only)

1. Introduction

This Cookie Policy explains how this website uses cookies. UK Deaf Athletics uses essential cookies only, required for the website to function. No analytics, marketing, tracking or third-party cookies are used.

2. What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files placed on your device when you visit a website. Essential cookies support basic functionality such as page loading, navigation and security. This website uses essential cookies only.

3. Essential cookies we use

Essential cookies:

- Do not track your activity
- Do not store personal information
- Cannot be disabled without affecting how the site works

Examples include:

- Session cookies that keep the site running while you browse
- Security cookies used by IONOS to protect the website
- Load-balancing cookies that ensure pages display correctly

4. No non-essential cookies

This website does not use:

- Google Analytics
- Marketing or advertising cookies
- Social media tracking pixels

- Embedded third-party content that sets cookies
- Any external scripts that place cookies on your device

Because only essential cookies are used, no cookie-consent banner is required under UK GDPR.

5. Managing cookies in your browser

You can control or delete cookies through your browser settings. Please note that blocking essential cookies may affect how the website functions.

6. Updates to this policy

We may update this Cookie Policy if our use of cookies changes or if legal requirements are updated.

7. Contact

If you have any questions about how we use cookies, please contact us: secretary@ukdeafathletics.org.uk