This code explains the standards of behaviour expected from everyone involved in UK Deaf Athletics.

We want UK Deaf Athletics to feel welcoming, respectful and enjoyable for everyone. This code sets out how we behave, communicate and work together as a community.

How we treat each other

- We show respect, kindness and fairness.
- We use clear, accessible communication.
- We support deaf athletes, volunteers and families.

How we train and compete

- We follow safety guidance from coaches and volunteers.
- We use visual signals and deaf-aware communication wherever possible.
- We compete fairly and honestly.
- We respect officials, volunteers and other athletes.

How we represent the group

- We act as positive ambassadors for deaf sport.
- We challenge discrimination or unsafe behaviour.
- We ask for help if we are unsure or worried about something related to UK Deaf Athletics.

This code applies to athletes, volunteers, coaches and committee members.
